ABOUT ANAM

The Australian National Academy of Music (ANAM) is dedicated to training exceptional young classical musicians from Australia and New Zealand. It is the only professional performance training institute of its kind in Australia, and one of few in the world. With an outstanding track record of success, ANAM alumni work as soloists and in orchestras and chamber ensembles in Australia and internationally. ANAM aims to inspire these future music leaders and encourages audiences to share the experience. Find out more at anam.com.au

ANAMsyndicate

“We have been involved for a number of years in the ANAMsyndicate program, starting with one musician, with whom we are still in contact. It has been wonderful to be involved – we have gained more than we have given, met like-minded people and developed friendships. We enjoy watching young musicians blossom at ANAM and go out in the world and do their thing.”

– JOAN & BARRY MISKIN, ANAMsyndicate Donors

Help make a musician's dream a reality...

A young musician's decision to pursue classical music training at ANAM is an intense commitment.

Over the course of their time with us the sole focus for our musicians is the expansion of their musicality and the mastery of their instrument. When their training concludes (usually after three years) each artist will have made the transition from promising apprentice to emerging professional.

To make this journey possible, all musicians at ANAM are on a full scholarship and do not incur a study debt. We further support our musicians with financial assistance of up to $11,000 per annum to help with the cost of living to ensure that they can focus all their time and energy on ANAM's demanding program.

“ANAM musicians are lovely young people who have worked really hard to get where they are. I could have just given money, but I like the way the ANAMsyndicate program gives me a connection to my giving.”

— ANN GRANT, ANAMsyndicate Donor

The ANAMsyndicate program allows music-lovers to join together to fund the financial assistance available to ANAM musicians.

Some donors strike out on their own as ANAMprimo supporters contributing the full $11,000 available to one musician.

Others enjoy being part of a group and with a minimum contribution of $1,000 can start, or join, an ANAMsyndicate.

When you donate to an ANAMsyndicate, you become part of a family for your musician. Many of our musicians come from interstate or from New Zealand and the support they receive from their sponsors is more than financial: your attendance at their performances and your interest in their progress can make a world of difference – not only while they are at ANAM, but throughout their careers.

“The ANAMsyndicate supporters really are a special group. I am so grateful to be able to get to know these wonderful people and I believe they are already my lifelong friends.”

— MIA STANTON (VIOLIN 2021)
